DEFAULT JUDGMENT

THIS MATTER, having come before this Court upon the Plaintiff Greene Concepts, Inc.'s Motion for Default Judgment, and the Court having reviewed this Motion, and all other pleadings and documents filed in this matter, hereby finds and orders as follows:

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS:

1. That on January 14, 2019, Plaintiff filed a Complaint against Defendant.
2. That as of February 5, 2019, the Defendant has not yet answered said Complaint and the Plaintiff requests this Court enter an Order of Default Judgment.
3. That pursuant to Wyo.R.Civ.P. Rule 55(b)(2), a "party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the court therefore . . . [and] If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to . . . establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper.”

4. That Plaintiff Greene Concepts, Inc. is a New York corporation.

5. That Defendant Colins Capital, LLC (“Defendant”), is a Wyoming Limited Liability Company, with a principal office located in Cheyenne, Laramie County, Wyoming.

6. That this Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and parties of this actions as the amount in controversy is greater than $50,000.00.

7. That venue is proper in the First Judicial District Court for Laramie County as the events giving rise to the controversy took place in Laramie County and the Defendant is located in Laramie County, Wyoming.

8. That on or between 2014 and 2015, Greene and Colins entered into certain agreements relating to a prospective business.

9. That Greene and Colins agreed that Colins would make a $58,250.00 investment in Greene, and in exchange receive certain stock in Greene Concepts, Inc. over a period of time based upon performance. Moreover, Greene would execute promissory notes in the amounts of the total investment in favor of Colins to be paid by dates certain.

10. That the parties agreed that the promissory notes would mature and be fully payable one year from their execution, and that Colins had the option of receiving Greene Concepts, Inc. stock in lieu of cash repayment if it so desired.

11. That Greene, in anticipation of the financing accomplished via the promissory notes, placed shares of its stock valued at $58,250.00 on reserve with a reserve agent.

12. That Colins never provided the $58,250.00 investment nor any other form of consideration pursuant the terms of the promissory notes and the parties overall intentions.

13. That subsequent to the events described above, Greene attempted to contact Colins regarding Colins' failure to provide the agreed upon consideration, but Greene has been unable to make contact with Colins or its principal, James Kaufman.

14. That stock reserves established by Greene remain in the hands of the reserve agent, and Greene is not able to re-take possession of them without permission from Colins or a court order.

15. That to date, Greene has received no monies or other consideration from Colins.

16. That Defendant has become unjustly enriched due to his breach of contract with the Plaintiff.

17. That as a result of the above-described actions, Colins has unjustifiably and without legal excuse materially breached its agreements with Greene by failing to provide Greene with the financing funds for which Greene executed the promissory notes.

18. That Greene has suffered damages in that their stock reserves are unobtainable by Greene due to Colins' breach and that the amount of the stock reserves is in excess of $50,000.00.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment Against Defendant shall be and hereby is granted in favor of the Plaintiff, Greene Concepts, Inc. and against the Defendant Colins Capital, LLC on the claims alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint. The Court hereby declares the promissory notes to be void due to lack of consideration and directs that the stock reserves be released from the reserve agent and back to Plaintiff, Greene Concepts, Inc. and for such other and further relief the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

SO ORDERED this 25 day of February 2019.
