The company leases a location in Hillsboro, Oregon. The facility is 8,400 square feet and will require some buildout. Currently Jetblack is searching for reasonable financing terms and partners for its projects.

Management discussions recently have been centered around finding capital to fund its operations. Management is also discussing with counsel on how to lock the share structure so the authorized share count of the company will not be split or raised by future management. The idea is to create a closed end company. In addition, management is speaking with counsel on how Mr. Goldin, Jetblack Chair and CEO. May release some of his personal stake for sale and then lend the capital back to the company for future growth at an interest rate that would compensate for inflation. Mr. Goldin will still need to verify with counsel if this is legally allowed by SEC and if it is feasible.

Market Research

Jetblack Corp has determined, through extensive research, key areas in which new cannabis cultivation and processing opportunities can be monetized for the shareholders of OTC: JTBK.

What We Can Do: the Market

If a person is a public investor, we provide a way to participate in the future value of cannabis industry today. If a person is a consumer, we are providing new solutions that are coming their way. If a person is involved in cannabis industry in any capacity, we are providing a source of new partnerships for tomorrow.

Our Skills

Our highly skilled team in North America, has deep capabilities; theoretical and practical, for consumers and business. Our joint venture explorations are opening new vistas.

We have revisited assumptions on what the world's most prominent agriculture and hydroponics firms are based, when they began a few short years ago. We examine what works from the past and what doesn't. The opportunity exists to leverage what is known about production systems to provide alternatives. We then infuse inspiration to our expertise. Being "the best" yesterday no longer guarantees being the best tomorrow.

Why we are different.

Jetblack is a public company. We convert the design passion of our management as individuals, into commercial outcomes. Brilliant human innovation in the world of cannabis and beyond can occur at the level of the individual, but such individuals alone don't usually have the opportunity to commercialize their insights. We have started to form a community of such talented individuals in order to blend their multiple perspectives into practical applications for the benefit of JTBK shareholders; the funders of these innovations. This gives the general investing public uncommon access to the potential financial rewards of the marijuana industry, by being shareholders of OTC: JTBK.

Jetblack Corp

Notes to Financial Statements for the 12 Months Ending December 31, 2018

The Financial Statements have been prepared by, and attested to by, in the Management Certification pertaining to the 2018 Annual Report.

Note 1 Organization, History and Business

The name of the issuer is Jetblack Corp, and is also written as Jetblack Corp. We were incorporated as Tortuga Mexican Imports Inc. on April 17, 2002 in the State of Nevada for the purpose of selling consumer products. Effective March 15, 2010, we changed our name to Jetblack Corp., by way of a merger with our wholly owned subsidiary, Jetblack Corp., which was formed solely for the purpose of effectuating the corporate reorganization and pursuing new business in subsequent years.

On February 26, 2016 Barton Hollow, LLC, a stockholder of the Issuer, filed an Application for Appointment of Custodian pursuant to Section 78.347 of the Act in the District Court for Clark County, Nevada. Barton Hollow was subsequently appointed custodian of the Issuer by Order of the Court on April 5, 2016 (the "Order"). In accordance with the provisions of the Order, Barton Hollow thereafter moved to: (a) reinstate the Issuer with the State of Nevada; (b) provide for the election of interim officers and directors; and (c) call and hold a stockholder meeting.

Daniel A. Goldin was appointed CEO and Director on June 20, 2016. The former Custodian has since been discharged and full authority has been returned to the Board of Directors of Jetblack Corp. Mr. Goldin purchased the convertible note held by former custodian, making Mr. Goldin the holder of the only convertible note on the books of Jetblack Corp at the time. Under the leadership of Mr. Goldin, Jetblack has initiated the entry of Jetblack Corp into the emerging markets of cannabis.

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies Revenue Recognition

The company is still pre-revenue. Revenue in the future is anticipated to arise from cultivation, processing and/or consultant work related to the Cannabis Marijuana Industry.

Revenue is recognized in accordance with ASC 605. As such, the Company identifies performance obligations and recognizes revenue over the period through which the Company satisfies these obligations. Any contracts that by nature cannot be broken down by specific performance criteria will recognize revenue on a straight line basis over the contractual term of the period of the contract.

Income Taxes

The company has a net loss for the period ending December 31, 2018. This loss has a 20 year carryover period. The company continually evaluates its tax positions, changes in tax laws, and new authoritative rulings for potential implications to its tax status.

Stock Based Compensation

When applicable, the Company will account for the stock-based payments to employees in accordance with ASC 718, "Stock Compensation" ("ASC 718"). Stock-based payments to employees include grants of stock, grants of stock options and issuance of warrants that are recognized in the consolidated statement of operations based on their fair values at the date of grant.

The company accounts for stock-based payments to non-employees in accordance with ASC 505-50, "Equity-Based Payments to Non-Employees." Stock-based payments to non-employees include grants of stock, grants of stock options and issuance of warrants that are recognized in the consolidated statement of operations based on the value of the vested portion of the award over the requisite service period as measured at its then-current fair value as of each financial reporting date.

The Company calculates the fair value of option grants and warrant issuances utilizing the Binomial pricing model. The amount of stock-based compensation recognized during a period is based on the value of the portion of the awards that are ultimately expected to vest. ASC 718 requires forfeitures to be estimated at the time stock options are granted and warrants are issued to employees and non-employees, and revised, if necessary, in subsequent periods if actual forfeitures differ from those estimates. The term "forfeitures" is distinct from "cancellations" or "expirations" and represents only the unvested portion of the surrendered stock option or warrant. The Company estimates forfeiture rates for all unvested awards when calculating the expense for the period. In estimating the forfeiture rate, the Company monitors both stock option and warrant exercises as well as employee termination patterns.

The resulting stock-based compensation expense for both employee and non-employee awards is generally recognized on a straight-line basis over the period in which the Company expects to receive the benefit, which is generally the vesting period.

Loss per Share

The Company reports earnings (loss) per share in accordance with ASC Topic 260-10, "Earnings per Share." Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares available. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed similar to basic earnings (loss) per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. Diluted earnings (loss) per share has not been presented as there are no dilutive securities.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purpose of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers cash and cash equivalents to include all stable, highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company primarily transacts its business with one financial institution. The amount on deposit in that one institution varies but does not exceed the federally-insured limit $250,000 at this time.

Depreciation

a) Furniture, Equipment and Other Assets:

The Organization has a policy of capitalizing fixed assets in excess of $500. Depreciation of the fixed assets as reported has been computed by the declining balance method, following GAAP provisions, over the estimated useful lives. The company is calculating depreciation on a 6 month basis.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 3 Related Party Transactions

None for the period ending December 31, 2018

Note 4 Stockholders' Equity

Common Stock

The holders of the Company's common stock are entitled to one vote per share of common stock held. As of December 31, 2018 the Company has 615,422,000 shares issued and outstanding.

Note 5 Office Lease
