Item 4 Management's discussion and analysis or plan of operation.

There are no known events likely to have a material impact on the Company's liquidity. However, the Company has meager cash reserves and access to a limited line of credit that may not provide the Company with the necessary funds to address its liquidity requirements. Hybrid Fuels is a relatively new business venture and has no history of earnings or profit and there is no assurance that it will operate profitably in the future. As such, there is no assurance that it will provide a return on investment.

The company has operating losses from the initial implementation of its operations, and it faces unforeseen costs, expenses, problems and difficulties that could easily prevent it from ever being profitable. The company is in the early stages of development and could fail before implementing its business plan

The company has no significant elements of income or loss that do not arise from its continuing operations, it has no current material commitments for capital expenditures; the significant fluctuations in the price of oil will have a material impact on the company's business; consequently, from time to time, the company's financial statements may be materially different.

Item 5 Legal proceedings.

No legal proceedings are threatened or pending against the Company or any of its officers or directors; none of the Company's officers, directors or affiliates have material interest in actions that are adverse to the Company's interests

Item 6 Material Defaults

The Company has had no material default of any financial or contractual instruments

Item 7 Other information.

Hybrid Fuels and Essential Chemical Services, Inc. entered into a share exchange wherein Hybrid Fuels exchanged 2,000,000 million common restricted shares with Essential Chemical Services, Inc for 1,000 common restricted common shares of Essential. Hybrid Fuels' shares were issued to Christian (Chris) Kottemann. Mr. Kottemann's shares represented all of the issued and outstanding shares of Essential Chemical Services. (ii) The current management of Hybrid Fuels has disposed of no assets nor are they aware of any disposal of assets occurring within the last 3 years;

Warren Wheeler, the current president and director, is the majority shareholder. Mr. Wheeler owns 119,888,000 common shares, ±79% of the issued and outstanding common shares and 100% of the Class A convertible preferred voting stock; the rights of the security holders have not been modified;

Item 8 Exhibits.

As of this date, the company has entered into no contracts or leases upon which the company's business is substantially dependent. The amended, restated articles of Incorporation, by laws, legal opinions unaudited financial statements, and other relevant documents are made available on this website

Item 9 Certifications.

I, Warren Wheeler, certify that:

I have reviewed this annual disclosure statement of Hybrid Fuels, Inc., and based on my knowledge, this disclosure statement does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made not misleading with respect to the period covered by this disclosure statement, and based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included or incorporated by reference in this disclosure statement, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the issuer as of, and for, the periods presented in this disclosure statement.

Date: June 30, 2011
